

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE MAJORITY, VIETNAMESE MINORITY AND OTHER NATIONAL GROUPS IN PRAHA-LIBUŠ

Do we live together
or next to each other?

Where do we find common ground
and where do we lack it?

How do we see and perceive ourselves?

What ails us?

What do we praise?

What do we say about each other?

When are we mistaken?

Which stereotypes deceive us?

Which barriers do we consider significant for mutual coexistence?

Are we different?

We invite all people interested to a seminar focused on the mutual coexistence of the majority, the Vietnamese and other national groups in the Prague - Libuš and its outskirts.

Come discuss the results of the survey on the coexistence from the perspective of the majority and Vietnamese locals from Libuš. The survey was conducted by the Faculty of Science, Charles University in Prague, based on the assignment of the Ministry of Regional Development of the Czech Republic.

The seminar takes place on Monday the

16. of June 2014,

from 6 pm in the cantina of Elementary School Meteorologická, Meteorologická 181, Praha 4 - Libuš.

Schedule:

18:00–19:00 lecture from the mayor of Prague - Libuš and representatives of the Faculty of Science, Charles University

19:00–20:00 discussion
